

Arts, Culture and Heritage Protect

At Ecclesiastical, we understand that many heritage and cultural institutions offer engaging educational programs for adults, children, and teens, while others may also operate a commercial enterprise, such as a gift shop, restaurant, or cafe. Some are located in modern, iconic structures, others in treasured heritage buildings. Virtually all rely on the efforts and generous support of both volunteers and donors. Unique buildings and facilities have unique insurance needs. We understand, and this level of understanding means we support you with genuine experience and expertise.

As a leading Canadian specialist insurer, Ecclesiastical's products and services are designed to meet the exacting requirements of heritage and cultural institutions. We also understand the complexities of calculating a replacement cost value for heritage properties and structures, helping you avoid the sometimes-tragic consequences of underinsurance. We will work closely with you to provide a comprehensive, and tailored insurance program that will meet your current and evolving needs.
